PROPOSED PROCEDURAL SCHEDULES:

By means of this document, I am proposing a procedural schedule for the three Dockets listed above, subject to change if the General Assembly passes Legislation that would affect this schedule. Further, the proposed schedule is subject to potential change to accommodate the impact of discovery disputes. Also, although I am not suggesting a hearing date at this time, I do not expect that the hearing on this matter, post-hearing matters, and preparation of a Commission Order will be completed prior to some time in November or December 2018. The parties to all three Dockets may file comments in writing with the Commission on the proposed schedule and other matters discussed herein on or before 12 Noon on Thursday, May 31, 2018. Please communicate whether you have legal or procedural objections to the proposed schedule. Any party not commenting by the time and date set herein will be deemed to have consented to the listed dates, proposed ground rules, and other matters as stated herein. In any event, please see below:

HEARINGS, FURTHER INFORMATION AND PROPOSED GROUND RULES

- 4. The hearing date on the merits of the three Dockets will be established at a later time.
- 5. Each witness will be allowed to present all evidence on the merits of all three cases at the same time on the witness stand, including direct, rebuttal, surrebuttal, or other testimony as appropriate, and will be subject to cross-examination on all testimony as well.
- 6. A full “Cast of Characters” will be distributed at a later time.
- 7. Witnesses for each party may be presented in panels of no more than three witnesses each upon request. The parties will deliver to the Standing Hearing Officer the order of presentation of their witnesses, and any requests for presentation by panel on or before a time to be set later. (Panelists must have identifying name placards to be placed on the table in front of them while testifying.)
- 8. All parties in each individual Docket will be declared to be parties in all three dockets regarding SCE&G nuclear matters before the Commission.
- 9. When appearing at the hearing, each witness will orally deliver a summary of their testimony or testimonies.
- 10. The parties are encouraged, within the bounds of due process, to streamline cross-examination of witnesses, when possible.
- 11. More procedural directives may be issued in the future.
